Sample Employee Policy Guide

Document purpose: This is a fictional sample policy document created for training and Gem testing. It is not an actual company policy.

1. Casual Leave

Employees may take up to 12 casual leave days per calendar year. Casual leave requests must be submitted through the employee HR portal and require manager approval before the leave is taken.

2. Working Hours

The standard working hours are Monday through Friday, 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM, with a one-hour lunch break.

3. Remote Work

Employees may work remotely up to two days per week with prior manager approval. New employees during their first 30 calendar days are expected to work from the office.

4. Expense Reimbursement

Employees must submit eligible business expense claims through the designated expense system and attach itemized receipts. The policy guide does not specify reimbursement limits or processing timelines.

5. Topics Not Covered

This sample guide does not contain information about maternity leave, dental insurance, or annual salary increases. The assistant must not invent answers about these topics.

Testing note: Use the exact unsupported-information response required by the training task when a question is not answered in this guide: “I'm sorry, but that information is not available in the uploaded policy guide.”
